No. 06-128V
Special Master Christian J. Moran

Filed: December 17, 2007

Stipulation; influenza vaccine;
urticaria.

UNPUBLISHED DECISION¹

Anne C. Toale, Esq., Maglio, Christopher & Toale Law Firm, Sarasota, FL, for Petitioner;
Glenn A. MacLeod, Esq., U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., for Respondent.

On December 3, 2007, the parties filed a joint stipulation concerning the injuries received by Dolores Thompson. Ms. Thompson filed a petition for compensation on February 22, 2006. In her petition, Ms. Thompson alleged that the influenza vaccination, which she received on January 28, 2005, caused her to suffer severe urticaria, which lasted for more than six months.

Respondent denies that Ms. Thompson’s injuries were caused by the influenza vaccine. Nevertheless, the parties agree to the joint stipulation, attached hereto as Appendix A. The undersigned finds said stipulation reasonable and adopts it as the decision of the Court in awarding damages, on the terms set forth therein.

Vaccine Rule 18(b) states that all decisions of the special masters will be made available to the public unless they contain trade secrets or commercial or financial information that is privileged and confidential, or medical or similar information whose disclosure would clearly be an unwarranted invasion of privacy. When such a decision or designated substantive order is filed, petitioner has 14 days to identify and to move to delete such information before the document’s disclosure. If the special master, upon review, agrees that the identified material fits within the banned categories listed above, the special master shall delete such material from public access.

Damages awarded in that stipulation include:

A lump sum of $25,000.00 in the form of a check payable to Petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC, Appendix B, the clerk is directed to enter judgment in case 06-128V according to this decision and the attached stipulation.

Any questions may be directed to Shana Z. Siesser at (202) 357-6358.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
